

CHARLIE'S FATHER (O.S.)
Why do you have blood on my floor?

CHARLIE (O.S.)
I was in another fight.

CHARLIE'S FATHER (O.S.)
Where did they cut you?

CHARLIE (O.S.)
They didn't. I fought back.

Charlie's Father sits down on the bed. June is cramped underneath but continues to hold her hand over her mouth.

CHARLIE'S FATHER (O.S.)
Once you start, you won't stop
Charlie. Find another way next time.

CHARLIE (O.S.)
I know dad.

CHARLIE'S FATHER (O.S.)
No you don't. You fight back, they will fight back even harder. You use your fists, they'll use knives. You use a knife, they'll use a gun. I see it all the time
Charlie.

CHARLIE (O.S.)
I would have been dead dad.

Charlie's Father sits in silence for a moment. He gets up and slaps Charlie's back.

CHARLIE'S FATHER (O.S.)
We'll get out of this city soon enough. Just be more careful next time.

Charlie and his father leave the room.

June can hear footsteps walking downstairs. After waiting a second, she carefully slips out from under Charlie's bed.

She reaches under the bed, grabs her own clothes and starts putting them on.

Charlie's bedroom door suddenly opens. June whips around and see's Charlie who quickly closes the door behind him.
